

SOUTHWEST SUPER LEAGUE

RULES AND STANDARDS

TEAM WITHDRAWAL

The deadline for team withdrawal with a refund is May 15th.

Any team that drops/withdraws after May 15th will have its league fee returned but not the team bond.

Teams that withdraw after June 30th will forfeit their league fee and team bond.

Should a team drop after the schedule is released, the club will be fined $1000 per team.

FIELD REQUIREMENTS

Each Club must provide permits for Saturday and Sunday field usage. Clubs should have at least one game-quality field for small-sided and at least one game-quality field for 11v11 each day.

Clubs can rent a field from one of the Southwest Super League's neutral venues at a cost to the club. Field fees must be paid at the time of registration or within 3 business days of receiving the invoice for fields.

Fields shall conform to US Soccer's Field Dimensions and Requirements. The home Club is responsible for marketing and setup of the field. All fields must be properly marked, goals must be anchored down and be the appropriate size, and have corner flags. All concerns in regards to the quality and safety of the field must be addressed at the beginning of the game. Once the game begins, it will be considered a played game.

SCHEDULING REQUIREMENTS

Games may only be rescheduled due to field permit issues or weather conditions. All reschedules must be requested Monday end of business day prior to the play weekend. Any games requested on Tuesday of the play weekend may be considered a forfeit. Forfeit and referee fees will be charged for forfeited games.

Each club is to work together to resolve coaching conflicts as much as possible.

All fields being used for Southwest Super League games are required to have Certificate of Insurance on file.

CLUB REQUIREMENTS

In order for a Club to be considered a member of the Southwest Super League, the following conditions must be met:

1. All teams participating in the Southwest Super League must belong to the club's 501c3 and must have a board of directors.
2. All teams participating in the Southwest Super League must have a common club name, logo, and uniform with jersey numbers.

SOUTHWEST SUPER LEAGUE

RULES AND STANDARDS

3. All teams participating in the Southwest Super League must answer directly to a single Director of Coaching and Club Administrator.
4. All players participating in the Southwest Super League must be registered under SAY Soccer or a sanctioning body within USSF.
5. All Clubs participating in the Southwest Super League must have field availability on all Saturdays and Sundays for home games during the season in which they participate OR must rent and pay for fields through the Southwest Super League.

REQUIRED CLUB CONTACT

Each club must have a Director of Coaching and Club Administrator. Club leadership must be current and up to date with contact information provided to the Southwest Super League staff.

ZERO TOLERANCE ABUSE POLICY

All parents, spectators, coaches, players, and officials must follow the Southwest Super League Code of Conduct.

Any person who touches, confronts, chases, cusses at, threatens, or assaults another individual will be permanently banned from the Southwest Super League and will be reported to SAY Soccer and US Soccer.

PARENTS AND SPECTATORS

If a parent/spectator is sent-off from a game, the individual will serve a minimum 3 game suspension to be enforced by the Club, team manager, and team coach. A suspended parent that comes to a game during their suspension will result in the game being forfeited and the coach and manager being suspended from the next 3-games.

If there is a second incident of a parent/spectator send-off from the same team, the team will be placed on probation for the remainder of the season. A third incident will result in the team being dropped from the league.

COACHES

If a coach is sent-off from a game, the coach will serve a minimum 3 game suspension from coaching ANY TEAM in the Southwest Super League. A second send-off for the coach will result in a 1 month suspension from coaching any team in the club.
